Announcements: Nancy Church will be leaving us to move out of state. This is her last meeting. We need a new temporary treasurer. Nancy, we will miss you.

Sallie announced a quilt retreat on Sept. 21, 22, 23 at the Maloney House starting at 9am. Bring necessary sewing items, a lunch and drink, and $10-$15 for all 3 days. You can leave your items there overnight.

Old Business: Cally gave a recap of our July picnic. It was held at a new location, indoors at the Senior Center in Hotchkiss. Many members liked being indoors. It was suggested that we consider renting that space for our regular meetings, but others countered with reasons for remaining in Memorial Hall. Dee would like to form a small group to consider a move or not.

Kathy and Shari gave a recap of the county fair. There were a good amount of entries in the needle work category and the newly formed fiber arts category. There were 71 quilt entries. There were crocheted entries from the correctional facility. Thanks to all of the volunteers. Suggestions for improvements are welcome as well as ideas for quilt judges.

New Business: We need to elect a temporary treasurer through the end of the year. Lida moved to elect Shari Davis and Corrine seconded. Motion passed. Shari is our new temporary treasurer.

There will not be Jacqueline DeJonge's assembly class.

Raffle: No updates.

Refreshments: Today thanks to Pat Ruble, Deb Ferrier and Lida Letey. We need a refreshment leader for next year. Ann Perry volunteered to create a check list of instructions to post so that new people will know what to do.

Door Prizes: LaVerne presented prizes to Sharyl Hardiman, Sarah Rockwell, and Debbie Matteson.
